3.2 Management Review Process

After staff have completed and submitted a UAR, the appropriate branch manager (or designate) will receive an email notification that a UAR has been received and requires management review. The UAR must be reviewed and submitted to the AML Compliance Department within 24 hours of receipt using the following process:

STEP	ACTIVITY	ACTION
1.	Email Notification	Email notification will be received from staff member who submitted UAR Report with subject of: [UAR] New UAR Report for Management Review - Navigate to the appropriate Unusual Activity Report by clicking the “Review this report” link in the email notification.
2.	Review	Review employee comments included in UAR
3.	Add notes	Add management review notes and any additional information (if applicable) to the Manager Comments Section of the Application
4.	Note any reasoning	Should you disagree that the activity identified is unusual, note your reasonings why in the applicable management comments section. The UAR will still be required to be reviewed by the AML Compliance Team. However, the notes from management will be considered during the review.

STEP	ACTIVITY	ACTION
5.	Submit UAR	Once completed submit UAR for AML Compliance review by clicking “Update”

3.3 Compliance Review Process

AML Compliance will receive an email notification that a UAR has been submitted. AML Compliance staff will review the UAR and file a Suspicious Transaction Report to FINTRAC as soon as reasonably practicable, if the investigation determines there are reasonable grounds to suspect money laundering, terrorist financing, or tax evasion.

AML Compliance will advise Branch Management of any further action required based upon the findings and overall risk assessment from their investigation.
