1 Purpose

This document provides the AML Compliance Team with guidance and procedures on Listed Person or Entity Property Reporting (LPEPR) to support timely identification and reporting of property owned or controlled by listed persons or entities, in accordance with applicable AML and sanctions-related legislative requirements and guidance issued by FINTRAC.

The objective of this document is to reinforce regulatory expectations for immediate reporting upon identification and to support consistent interpretation and application of LPEPR obligations by the AML Compliance Team.

2 Guidance

Use these guidelines and procedures in conjunction with the Credit Union Listed Person or Entity Property Reporting Guidelines.

3 Overview

Listed Person or Entity Property Reporting is a critical AML and sanctions obligation that is triggered by the identification of a listed person or entity with ownership or control over property held by the Credit Union.

This guideline is intended to:

- Clarify the regulatory rationale for LPEPR
- Emphasize the importance of immediate reporting upon identification
- Align internal interpretation with FINTRAC guidance and regulatory expectations

3.1 Regulatory Context

Canadian financial institutions are required to identify and report property owned or controlled by individuals or entities that appear on prescribed sanctions or terrorist listings. FINTRAC guidance indicates that the reporting obligation arises as soon as the institution becomes aware that such property exists.

The obligation to report is based on the identification of a listed person or entity and is not dependent on transaction activity, risk rating, or suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing.

3.2 Objective of LPEPR

The objective of LPEPR is to restrict access to the Canadian financial system by sanctioned or prohibited persons or entities and to support domestic and international enforcement efforts.

Reporting is required regardless of the value, activity level, or duration of the relationship and applies to all property owned or controlled by a listed person or entity.

4 Immediate LPEPR Reporting

The requirement to submit a listed person or entity property report is triggered as soon as the Credit Union becomes aware of property owned or controlled by a listed person or entity.

Immediate reporting is essential to:

- Meet legislative timing requirements
- Ensure regulators are promptly informed
- Demonstrate effective AML and sanctions compliance

FINTRAC guidance indicates that reporting is required as soon as the institution becomes aware that property owned or controlled by a listed person or entity exists and should be submitted without delay. Reporting should not be deferred pending further review, confirmation, or the collection of additional information.

The AML Compliance Team will, immediately upon notification or identification, proceed with submitting a LPEPR report as outlined in the procedures below.

5 Unusual Activity Reporting

In addition to the LPEPR reporting requirements the AML Compliance Team must also conduct an Unusual Activity Investigation once the LPEPR report has been submitted. Refer to AML Admin - UAR and STR Reporting Guidelines and Procedures.

Per the Credit Union LPEPR Guidelines staff are required to complete an UAR submission after a LPEPR notification has been sent in.

6 LPEPR Reporting Procedures

The following procedures are to be completed by the AML Compliance Team after identifying or receiving notification from Credit Union staff that Listed Person or Entity Property has been identified.

6.1 Notification or Identification of Listed Person or Entity Property

6.1.1 Notification from Staff

Per the Credit Union's LPEPR Guidelines staff are required to send notification to the AML Compliance Team immediately upon identification of a listed person or entity. The notification will come via a high-priority email with the subject line: LPEPR Escalation – Action Immediately!

The following information is required to be included in the email:

• The member's name and number, if applicable
• Detailed outline of how the listed person or entity was identified
• If property has been identified, details of that property and how the property is owned or controlled
• Any transaction details, whether completed or attempted, including but not limited to: ○ Account number ○ Date of transaction or request ○ Method of transaction (i.e. online, in person, etc.) ○ Conductor information
• The red flags or unusual activity leading the credit union to believe commission the following offences has occurred: ○ Terrorist activity financing offence ○ Sanctions evasion offence

Immediately upon receipt of a listed person or entity property notification the AML Compliance Team will begin preparing and submitting the LPEPR report as outlined below.

6.1.2 Identification by AML Compliance Team

During regular compliance activities, should the AML Compliance Team identify listed person or entity property, immediately upon identification of a listed person or entity property the AML Compliance Team will begin preparing and submitting the LPEPR report as outlined below.

6.2 Obtain LPEPR Form

The AML Compliance Team will open the most recent version of the LPEPR reporting form directly from FINTRAC's Paper Reporting Forms section.
